

The Ambedkar Chair in Social Work cordially invites you to the Ambedkar Memorial Lecture

by

Professor Kanchallaiah

Director, Centre for the Study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy Maulana Azad National Urdu University, Hyderabad

on

“Ambedkar in Hindutva Era”

at

3.00 p.m. on Tuesday 14th of April

Venue:

The Ambedkar Hall, NISWASS
3 Chandrashekharpur, Bhubaneswar-751023

Professor Kanchallaiah is Director of the Centre for the Study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy at the Maulana Azad National Urdu University, Hyderabad. Dr. Ilaiah is a prolific writer on issues related to contemporary Indian society, religious fundamentalism and the Dalit-Bahujan ideology and situation. He is a regular columnist for leading National Newspapers such as the Deccan Herald and The Hindu. Some of his books are (1) Why I am Not a Hindu: A Sudra Critique of Hindutva Philosophy, Culture and Political Economy, (2) God as Political Philosopher: Buddha's Challenge to Brahminism, (3) Democracy in India: A Hollow Shell, (4) Buffalo Nationalism: A Critique of Spiritual Fascism, (5) The Weapon of the Other: Dalit-Bahujan Writings and the Remaking of Indian Nationalist Thought (6) Turning the Pot: Tilling the Land, (7) Post-Hindu India: A Discourse on Dalit-Bahujan, Socio-Spiritual and Scientific Revolution.